

Chakesar, on Wednesday sealed a madressah in the Hospital Colony Chakesar in Shangla after a student complained of physical assault there.

According to the deputy commissioner, Shangla, Muhammad Fawad Khan, a student visited the assistant commissioner's office in Chakesar and complained to the AC about a teacher who physically assaulted him.

The DC said in his statement that following the teenager's complaint, the AC Chakesar, Shah Nawaz Khan, reached the madressah and sealed it while launching an inquiry into the incident.

Meanwhile, RPO Malakand Sher Akbar has instructed the Shangla police to enhance security of police buildings along the district's borders.

The Malakand division RPO on Wednesday visited various police stations, police posts and the district police office at Alpuri, the headquarters of Shangla district.

On this occasion, the district police officer Shangla, Shah Hassan, gave a detailed briefing to the RPO about the current security situation, overall law and order situation and the steps taken by the police in the district in this regard. — Correspondent

LAKKI MARWAT: Unknown armed men shot and killed an official of the health department in Serai Naurang town here on Tuesday night.

Police said that Shah Mehmood Khan, 36, a surgical technician at the Tehsil Headquarters Hospital, was attacked near Pasban Plaza in Naurang city soon after he left the hospital after duty.

"The official hailing from Bannu district received multiple bullet injuries and died at the hospital," they maintained.

Khan Mehmood Khan, 36, brother of the deceased, told police that he was at home in Bannu when someone informed him about the murder of his brother.

He said he reached the Tehsil Hospital where he found the body of his brother lying at the morgue.

The complainant said that his family had no enmity with anyone. Police said they handed over the body to the relatives after a postmortem examination.

They said they had registered a case against unknown killer under Section 302 (intention
