He said Pakistan’s approach to facilitating dialogue remained principle-based. “Our position is anchored on principles, on the principles of the UN Charter, and with the aim of promoting peace and stability in the region,” he said.

Mr Andrabi clarified that Pakistan’s role would remain limited to facilitation.
 “It is up to the parties to determine the members of their delegations, as well as the dates of the talks, because obviously our role in this context is as facilitator,” he said.

 for dialogue – in complete earnestness,” he said.

The remarks came after nearly a month of conflict, during which only limited exchanges through intermediaries had taken place. Tehran has maintained that these do not constitute formal negotiations, citing deep mis-

Maulana Fazl hosted lunch in honour of the Chinese delegation. Both sides exchanged views on the US-Israeli war against Iran, terming it a violation of international law and Tehran’s sovereignty.

The discussion also highlighted convergence of views between JUI-F and China regarding the China-Pakistan Economic Corridor and regional peace, noting that such alignment would benefit the region.

Both sides stressed the need for peace and stability in the region and agreed to promote peaceful means to resolve conflicts.
 They warned that failure to achieve an immediate ceasefire could have serious economic consequences not only for the Middle East but also for Europe and the wider global economy.—Kalbe Ali
