elections [of 2024] were the party of Prisoner No. 804 [a reference to imprisoned PTI founder Imran Khan]."

MQM-P leader Dr Farooq Sattar called for finding a dura- ble solution for peace in the country instead of short-term firefighting measures.

He noted that rising terror- ism was linked to political polarisation and called for revising the National Action Plan to reflect new security challenges.

Mr Sattar also proposed con- vening a multi-party conference in response to the Jaffar Express attack, similar to the one held after the 2014 Army Public School massacre.

perform up to the mark will be sent home.

The minister expressed his displeasure with the output of NHA and directed all officials to ensure transparency in development projects.

He stressed the need for timely completion of road construction projects adding that delays significantly increase costs of the projects.

He urged NHA officers to work with dedication, commitment and diligence and ensure effective and efficient use of public funds.

During a meeting, NHA officials briefed the minister regarding ongoing and proposed road projects in Sindh, Balochistan and Khyber Pakhtunkhwa and other parts of the country.
